++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely cloudy but dry.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some clearer spells likely at first, but cloud spreading and thickening overnight to become generally overcast. Mostly dry, but perhaps the odd spot of drizzle by dawn. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
Another cloudy start for many, before brighter conditions and sunny spells develop into the afternoon. The best of these across western parts with some eastern coastal areas remaining dull. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Remaining largely cloudy but dry into Saturday. Staying dry with more sunny spells into Sunday. Low confidence Monday, but likely cloudy with some rain possible.
